TASTE and SEE

Discovering God Among Butchers,
Bakers, & Fresh Food Makers

MARGARET FEINBERG

God is a foodie who wants to transform your supper into sacrament.

One of America's most beloved teachers and writers, Margaret Feinberg, takes you on a culinary exploration of Scripture. You'll learn fresh Biblical discoveries as she shares stories from wandering a California farm with one of the world's premier fig farmers, baking fresh matzo at Yale University, descending 400 feet into the frosty white caverns of a salt mine, and visiting a remote island in Croatia to harvest olives.

With each visit, Margaret asks, "How do you read these Scriptures, not as theologians, but in light of what you do every day?" Their answers will forever change the way you read the Bible - and approach every meal. Each session begins in the kitchen with a delicious recipe you can try at home, and then transitions into rich, tasty Biblical teaching.

The six-session Taste and See DVD Online Bible Study will help you:

- Experience deeper connections around the table
- Recognize the rich harvest being brought forth in you
- Discover the life-giving power of the simplest ingredients
- Learn how you were uniquely created to help others flourish
- Know the one thing God has planted in every struggle to carry you through
- Unlock the satisfying and fruitful life you've been created for

God's focus on food in the Bible is meant to do more than satisfy your stomach. It's meant to heal your soul and draw you closer to Christ. Let's taste and see God's goodness together.
